Prepaid Expiration and Refund Policy: The end user may request a refund of the available balance in an AdvanceConnect Account either by written request to the Company or by contacting the Company at its toll free telephone number once the end user verifies certain account information. Any such unused balances will expire in one hundred eighty (180) days following the last call made unless the balance is either fully depleted or a refund has been requested. Depending on the entity issuing the refund, refund fees and/or minimum refund amounts may apply. The prepaid balance expires ninety (90) days from the date of the last call placed on the Securus Debit account unless alternative arrangements are expressly requested by the correctional facility.

Other Charges

- 1. Federal Universal Service Fund Fee: The federal government requires that all telephone companies providing interstate service contribute to a fund to make phone service affordable and available to all Americans, including consumers with low incomes, those living in areas where the cost of providing telephone service is high as well as to schools, libraries, and rural health care providers. The law permits companies to pass this charge on to its consumers. This fee, which is known as the Federal Universal Service Fund (USF) fee, is based on a specific percentage of the cost of interstate calls that is set by the federal government. The FCC Contribution factor is subject to change quarterly. The current factor can be found at https://www.fcc.gov/general/contribution-factor-quarterly-filings-universal-service-fund-usf-management-support.
- 2. Federal Cost Recovery Charge: This is a charge used to recover the cost of fees and surcharges that Securus is permitted to pass through to Consumers. A Federal Cost Recovery Charge may be applied to recover government-imposed charges that can't be individually itemized including, without limitation, federal charges for Telecommunications Relay Services, Local Number Portability, North American Numbering Plan administration and certain other federal taxes and assessments applicable to the calling services.
